

Charming England: Through the Cotswolds

Experience the quiet charm of the English countryside on this relaxed journey through the Cotswolds. From honey-colored stone cottages to peaceful gardens and winding country roads, we'll explore villages that feel pulled from the pages of a storybook. Enjoy time in Burford, Stow-on-the-Wold, Broadway, and more — with visits to historic towns, local markets, and classic tea rooms along the way. This is England at its most picturesque.

Private ground transportation, accommodations, and experiences are all included.

Tentative Itinerary

Day 1: Travel to England

Begin your journey by departing from your home airport and boarding an overnight flight to London Heathrow.

Day 2: Arrive + Welcome to the Cotswolds

Upon arrival, enjoy a private transfer from Heathrow straight to the charming Cotswolds. Once you've settled into your accommodations, we'll take a gentle walk through a nearby village to soak in the atmosphere before gathering for a welcome dinner at a traditional pub.

Day 3: Chipping Campden, Broadway & Stow-on-the-Wold

Spend the morning wandering the historic streets of Chipping Campden. Then take a scenic drive to Broadway, where you can enjoy lunch and browse local shops. In the afternoon, explore Stow-on-the-Wold, with the option to visit a cozy tearoom or take a peaceful countryside walk.

Day 4: Bourton-on-the-Water, Bibury & Cirencester

Discover Bourton-on-the-Water, often called the "Venice of the Cotswolds," before visiting the picture-perfect village of Bibury. Continue on to Cirencester, where you can explore bustling market stalls and charming streets. Return in the evening for a quiet, restful night.

Day 5: Tetbury, Painswick & Gardens

Start your day in Tetbury, known for its antiques and royal connections. Choose to visit one of two beautiful gardens — Highgrove Gardens or Painswick Rococo Garden. Later, enjoy a stroll through the lovely village of Painswick before heading back.

Day 6: Stratford-upon-Avon & Winchcombe

Take a day trip to Stratford-upon-Avon, Shakespeare's birthplace, with time to visit historic sites or catch a performance if the timing is right. On the return journey, stop in the charming town of Winchcombe.

Day 7: Departure Day

Today is all about getting you to the airport for your departure flight. You'll have a private transfer from your accommodations straight to Heathrow Airport.
