

Cotswolds & Scotland

Experience the best of England and Scotland!

Spend a week wandering the storybook villages and rolling hills of the Cotswolds, then journey north to Scotland for a week of dramatic landscapes, historic castles, and rich cultural traditions. This is the perfect opportunity to enjoy two incredible trips in one seamless adventure.

You, here. Next year.

Cotswolds: April 12th - April 18th

Scotland: April 18th - April 25th

Join us and experience the magnificence of these two special locations!

Please note: Any activities mentioned in the following itinerary that require an entry fee are considered optional and are not included in the trip cost.

Sunday, April 12: Departure!

Your adventure begins today as you depart from the United States on your overnight flight to London Heathrow. Settle in, get comfortable, and look forward to waking up in England tomorrow, ready to begin your journey through the Cotswolds and Scotland.

Where you'll be staying

You'll have your own private room in an inviting home base where we can relax and unwind each evening after days filled with exploring. Two of the five bedrooms feature their own ensuite bathrooms, while the home also offers a spacious main bathroom and an additional half bath for convenience.

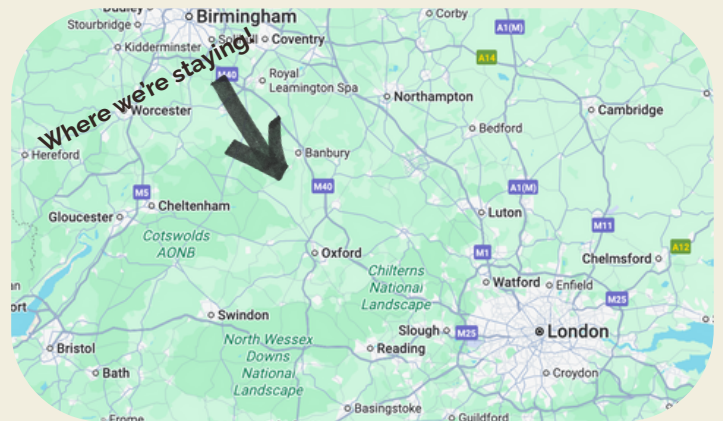

A private bedroom, plenty of bathrooms - it's a dream accommodation in a dream location! But wait - it gets even better as we go!

Cotswolds, England

Bask in the English Countryside

We'll be staying in charming Bloxham, England, perfectly situated near the storybook villages of the Cotswolds to make for quick and easy access to the places we're going to visit.

Every traveler will have her own room to retreat to at the end of each day.

Cotswolds: Monday, April 13th - Saturday, April 18th

Monday, April 13: Arrival

It's going to be a wonderful day as you arrive at London Heathrow! I'll be there to greet you, and together we'll make our way to our accommodations where you can unpack and get comfortable. Once you're settled, we'll enjoy a leisurely walk through a nearby village to take in the charm of the Cotswolds before coming together for a welcome dinner at a traditional pub.

Tuesday, April 14: Chipping Campden, Broadway & Stow-on-the-Wold

Spend the morning wandering the historic streets of Chipping Campden. Then take a scenic drive to Broadway, where you can enjoy lunch and browse local shops. In the afternoon, explore Stow-on-the-Wold, with time to admire the famous tree-framed door at St. Edward's Church, visit a cozy tearoom, or take a peaceful countryside walk.

Wednesday, April 15: Bourton-on-the-Water, Bibury & Cirencester

Spend the morning in Bourton-on-the-Water, often called the "Venice of the Cotswolds." Stroll along the River Windrush, cross its charming stone bridges, and visit the delightful Model Village before exploring the local shops. Continue to Bibury, one of England's most picturesque villages, where you can admire the iconic Arlington Row cottages and enjoy lunch beside the River Coln. In the afternoon, visit Cirencester, once the Roman capital of the Cotswolds, to browse independent shops, visit the Corinium Museum*, or relax in the peaceful Abbey Grounds park.

Thursday, April 16: Tetbury, Painswick & Winchcombe

Start your day in Tetbury, known for its antiques and royal connections. Choose to visit one of two beautiful gardens — Highgrove Gardens or Painswick Rococo Garden. Later, enjoy a stroll through the lovely village of Painswick before stopping in the charming town of Winchcombe on the way back.

Friday, April 17: Stratford-upon-Avon

Take a day trip to Stratford-upon-Avon, Shakespeare's birthplace, with time to visit historic sites, wander the town, and enjoy the River Avon and all its beauty.

Saturday, April 18: Travel to Edinburgh

Today we'll drive to London Heathrow to drop off our rental car, then continue our journey by train to Edinburgh, Scotland. Sit back, relax, and enjoy the scenic ride north as we get ready to explore Scotland's rich history, stunning landscapes, and charming towns.

Stay in the heart of Edinburgh

Since this combined trip includes two additional days in-country, we will be spending two nights at a hotel right in the center of the city which will allow us the opportunity to explore the city on foot and by train!

Every traveler will have her own hotel room to retreat to at the end of each day.

Edinburgh: Saturday, April 18th - Monday, April 20th

Stay in the heart of Inverness

Inverness is a perfect place to make as a home base for the highlands. We'll be staying within just minutes walking distance to the center of Inverness so travelers can enjoy it on foot and at their leisure!

Monday, April 20: Edinburgh → Aberdeen → Inverness

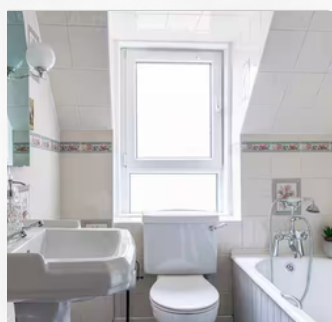

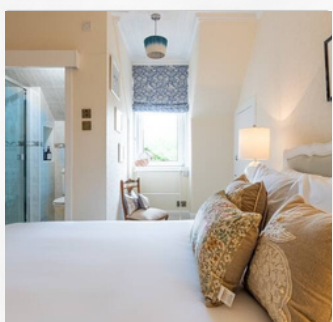

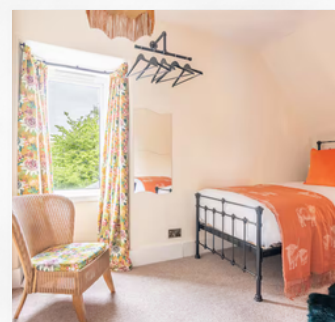

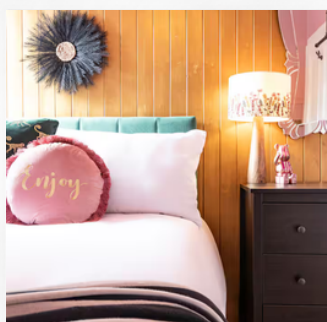

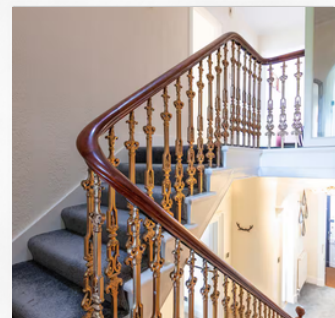

We'll pick up our rental car in Edinburgh and begin our journey north to Inverness. Our route will take us through Fife, giving us a chance to explore its charming towns before stopping at the dramatic Dunnottar Castle near Aberdeen. Afterward, we continue north along the scenic east coast, taking in the landscape as we make our way toward Inverness.

Inverness: Monday, April 20th - Friday, April 24th

Where you'll be staying

Stay in a charming Highland townhouse in the heart of Inverness, blending classic character with modern comforts. The home features five unique bedrooms and five bathrooms, a cozy living room, a fully equipped kitchen, and a dining area opening to a private courtyard.

Tuesday, April 21: Inverness

Today is all about taking it easy. Our accommodations are right near the heart of Inverness so you can choose to relax at the house or enjoy a leisurely stroll through town. There are no scheduled activities, just a day to unwind and explore at your own pace.

Wednesday, April 22: Wick

Today we head to Wick, taking the scenic route and stopping at some of the region's historic castles along the way. Explore the ruins, enjoy the views, and step back in time as we wander through these fascinating sites. Once in Wick, there will be time to relax, stroll through town, and soak in the local charm.

Thursday, April 23: Loch Ness & Cairngorms National Park

Today we explore two of Scotland's most iconic natural wonders. We'll visit the legendary Loch Ness, taking in its stunning waters and keeping an eye out for the famous Nessie. Then we continue into Cairngorms National Park, where you can enjoy the breathtaking scenery, rolling hills, and charming villages. There will be opportunities for short walks, photos, and simply soaking in the beauty of the Highlands.

Friday, April 24: Depart Inverness → Glenfinnan → Glencoe → Glasgow

We'll leave Inverness and travel south, stopping first at the famous Glenfinnan Viaduct lookout. Take in the sweeping views of the viaduct and surrounding landscapes, a perfect spot for photos and soaking in the Highlands. Next, we'll drive through the dramatic landscapes of Glencoe, enjoying its rugged beauty and photo opportunities. Afterward, we continue to Glasgow and check in at Crossbasket Castle, staying in their 5-Bedroom Ensuite Lodge - a truly royal way to end our trip!

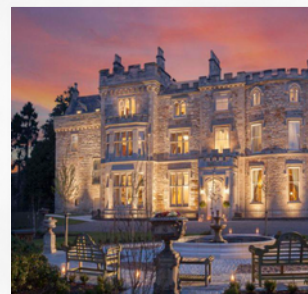

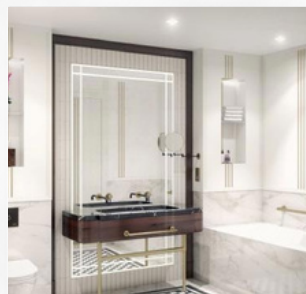

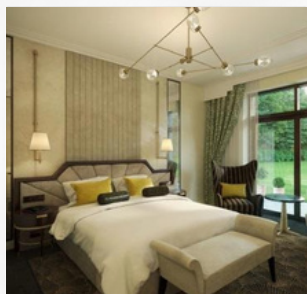

Saturday, April 25: Departure Day!

Today is departure day! Hopefully your flight doesn't leave too early in the morning because the Crossbasket Castle does a world famous breakfast!

Where you'll be staying

The Crossbasket Castle is renowned in Scotland. While we won't be staying in the castle itself, we'll be staying in their 5 Bedroom Eco Lodge which offers us 5 separate bedrooms each with their own ensuite. Complimentary breakfast (which is divine), and a unique experience to stay on the castle estate.

Glasgow: Friday, April 24th - Saturday, April 25th
